To Whom It May Concern :

I have a great concern that selective service increases divisiveness among the population in the United States and causes undue suffering.

I feel strongly that one should be allowed to follow one's conscience and declare conscientious objector status without penalty.

Current penalties for noncompliance are disproportional for the harm incurred. They should be removed, retroactively.

Respect should be given to immigrants and I believe they, like others, should be exempt from any requirement to register for a system to increase the divisions in our country.

As a Quaker, I believe in peaceful effort to resolve conflict.

Sincerely,
Holly Anderson
